

Back-to-Basics Conflict Handling

Your personal workbook!

INNARCHIVE.COM - BACK TO BASICS

CONFLICT HANDLING

1. Some information on the Workbooks

As part of the Back-to-Basics – Conflict Handling Training, this workbook should help you take your own personal comments and notes. You should keep this workbook in your own file and whenever needed, refer back to the workbook and its content.

The workbook includes some of the information covered on the PowerPoint slides; here you will find that in some cases information has been deliberately left out, here it is important that you complete these missing pieces of information from the detail on the PowerPoint used by the Trainer.

Space has also been left for you to take your own notes – This is important as you will experience many discussions and feedback sessions in the course of the training which will deliver you important information that you will be able to use back at your workplace - The added advantage.... It has been proven that if you write something down you will tend to remember it!

Finally, at the end you will find your own personal action plan, your Trainer will give you time at the end of the session to think about a personal call of action – what are the key points of the training you intend to put into practice when you return back to work... remember in the wise words of an old Chinese saying:

I hear I forget

I see I remember

🏶 I do I understand

The action plan is all about doing. Your Trainer can assist you here if you have questions!

| 2.   | Objectives – By the end of the training   |  |
|------|---|--|
|    | Describe at least 4 conflict behaviours including passive-aggressive                      |  |
| *    | Discuss the impact of unresolved conflict on Task, Team & Individual                          |  |
|    | Explain how one's personal reactions and behaviour style can create a 'Conflict Cycle'        |  |
|    | Clearly demonstrate the 5 Fighting Fair steps in a role play                                  |  |
|    | Propose the steps to follow if a conflict is not resolved through the Fighting Fair framework |  |
| Spac | ce for your own notes:  |  |
|      |   |  |
|      |   |  |
|      |   |  |
|      |   |  |
|      |   |  |
|      |   |  |
| 3.   | My conflict story   |  |

| 4. What is conflict?            |  |
|---------------------------------|--|
| Space for your own notes:       |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
| 5. Passive-Aggressive Behaviour |  |
| Space for your own notes:       |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
| 6. Impact of conflicts          |  |
| Space for your own notes:       |  |
| Space for your own notes.       |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |
|                                 |  |

7. The conflict cycle

Step: Step:

Step: Step:

8. Two to Tango?

Space for your own notes:

"People have one thing in common, they are all different."

- Robert Zend

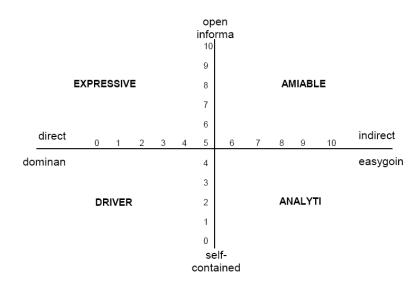

Think of your normal work-life behaviour. Read the statement pairs below and ask yourself: "If I were forced to choose, I would say "My behaviour is more ... ". Pick the one that applies 51 % of the time or more and tick beside it. Answer all questions.

| A                |          | В               |
|------------------|----------|-----------------|
|                  |          |                 |
| more animated    | OR       | more passive    |
| more take charge | OR       | more go along   |
| more assertive   | OR       | more hesitant   |
| more challenging | OR       | more accepting  |
| more active      | OR       | more thoughtful |
| more confronting | OR       | more supporting |
| more talkative   | OR       | more quiet      |
| more bold        | OR       | more retiring   |
| more intense     | OR       | more relaxed    |
| more forceful    | OR       | more subtle     |
|                  | . |                 |
|                  |          | TOTAL B         |

Add the ticks in column B and put that score beside TOTAL B. Find the TOTAL B number on horizontal line on the graph below and circle it.

|    | D                             |
|----|-------------------------------|
|    |                               |
| OR | more proper                   |
| OR | more disciplined              |
| OR | more self-controlled          |
| OR | more methodical               |
| OR | more distant                  |
| OR | more thinking                 |
| OR | more task-oriented            |
| OR | more reserved                 |
| OR | more matter-of-fact           |
| OR | more cool                     |
|    | OR |

Add the ticks in column C and put that score beside TOTAL C. Then find the TOTAL C number on the vertical line on the graph below. Find where these lines intersect and check the following table for information about your normal work behaviour.

|  | DRIVER  | AMIABLE  | ANALYTICAL   | EXPRESSIVE  |
|--|---|--|--|---|
| BEHAVIOR:  | takes control, achieves outcomes,   | agreeable,personable, caring,helpful   | attentive to details, systematic   | optimistic, warm, charismatic, energetic  |
| UNDERPRESSURE:   | yell, blow-up,bully, dictates   | submit,accommodate,passive-aggressive  | become silent, fleeor withdraw,autocratic  | talk louder and faster, comply  |
| PAYOFF:  | they feel superior,other peoplesubmit   | illusion ofharmony, neverhave to take risks  | maintain consistency, keep order by  | center of attention, influential  |
| STRENGTH:  | decisive, get thingsdone, self-confident,   | likeable, loyal,team player, peace-keeper  | precise, fact finder,organized andtimely   | energizer, persuasive, people oriented, creative  |
| WEAKNESS:  | can intimidate and alienate people  | indecisive, wastestime, gullible   | stubborn, aloof,unimaginative  | egotistical,lacks follow up,often late  |
| NEEDS:   | control, power,to be right  | security andbelonging, toplease others,  | controlled work,status quo,security, order   | popularity,warmth, socialrecognition  |
| POSSIBLECONFLICTSTYLE:WHENRESOLVINGCONFLICT: | open and direct, can be aggressive  strongly clarify their point of view, be business-like, reaffirm your need to be listened to as well, keep calm | denial there is a problem, leading to resentment be sincere, listen, slow down, affirm how they feel and impact of the conflict on team, set goals | lack of tact orempathy, facts notfeelinggo step by step, usefacts, logic, andstructure, stronglyclarify the facts asthey/you see it.make an action | dominate the conversation,may concede too soon show flexibility, let them talk, use demonstrations, strongly affirm their feelings, ensure your |
|  | and request the same  |  | plan for resolution  | perspective isunderstood  |

10. The Fighting Fair Framework

| Fighting Fair Step   | Abdul's Attitude  | Chandra's Conflict  | Maria's Melancholy   |
|--|---|---|--|
| Step 1: Be willing to fix the problem  Needs to be genuinely open hearted                                  | Hi Abdul, do you have a few minutes? I'd really like to talk with you about these issues we're having.  | Chandras, could we chatabout the fight we hadyesterday – I'd reallylike to sort it out if youhave a moment  | Hi Maria, I'm a bituncomfortable with thedramas we've beenhaving lately – could wehave a coffee thisafternoon and talk aboutit?  |
| Step 2: Say what the problem is for you  Use "I statements"  | Abdul, I feel frustrated when you leave the cleaning cupboard untidy each day. I have to spend 5 minutes at the start of my shift every day cleaning up after you and it's driving me nuts. | Chandras, I think our arguing is starting to impact the team and I'd like to find a better way to communicate with each other when it gets busy in the kitchen. | Maria, when you interrupted me the other day I felt really embarrassed – that's why I snapped at you. Sorry. I feel that you don't respect my point of view when you interrupt me. |
| Step 3: Listen to what the problem is for them  Use reflective listening and put yourself into their shoes | So what you're saying is that you don't feel you have enough time each shift to finish your jobs and clean the organize the cupboard?   | Chandras, just let me see if I've heard you OK – you don't like it when I put the orders behind the door - Is that the issue?   | Maria, so what I'm hearing is that most of the time you don't realize you're interrupting?   |
| Step 4: Attack the problem, not the person   | I know you work hardAbdul – it's just themessy cupboard eachday that drives me nuts.  | Chandras, I can see that would annoy you but the way you speak to me when you're angry is not OK.   | Maria, I'm sorry Ishouted at you yesterday– I should haveexplained what the issuewas earlier   |
| Step 5: Look foranswers so everyonegets what they need   | Abdul, maybe we could go and talk to Mr. Mohamed about your task list each day so you don't feel so rushed and will have time to get the cupboard sorted before I start my shift.           | Chandras, so this wouldall be cool if I put theorders on the board andyou agree to bite yourtongue when you feellike yelling?                             | Maria, I do want to hear your ideas – what can we do that will stop the interruptions but still let you say what you think?  |

12. Fighting Fair Role Play

| Briefly describe your scenario: |  |  |  |  |
|---------------------------------|--|--|--|--|
|                                 |  |  |  |  |
|                                 |  |  |  |  |
|                                 |  |  |  |  |

| Fight Fair step  | Write your ideas for the dialogue |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| Step 1:Be willing to fix the problem   |                                   |
| Needs to be genuinely open hearted   |                                   |
| Step 2: Say what the problem is for you  |                                   |
| Use "I statements"   |                                   |
| Step 3: Listen to what the problem is for them                                   |                                   |
| Use reflective listening and put yourself into their shoes                       |                                   |
| Step 4: Attack the problem, not the person                                       |                                   |
| You may feel frustrated duringthe conversation but don't makeit personal |                                   |
| Step 5: Look for answers so everyone gets what they need                         |                                   |
| because you don't want to have to have the same conversation again next week ©   |                                   |

13. Action Plan

| Action point | By when |
|--------------|---------|
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |
|              |         |